The scores in this booklet were edited from nearly illegible photocopies of crudely duplicated manuscripts, themselves made by inexpert copyists from unknown originals in the days before photo-copying machines existed. Any remaining errors are the responsibility of the editor.

Unfortunately the available sources did not specify who the composers and lyrics writers of these anthems are.

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It consists of 35 measures. The key signature has one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into systems, with measure numbers 19, 23, 27, 31, and 35 marked at the beginning of each system. The lyrics are in Afrikaans and Dutch. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more complex bass line in the left hand. The final system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign, indicating the end of the piece.

Technical notes

The score was typeset by the editor using his own M-Tx typesetting program, which in turn relies on the programs PMX by Don Simons, `musixlyr.tex` by Rainer Dunker, MusiX \TeX by Daniel Taupin et al., \LaTeX by Leslie Lamport and \TeX by Donald Knuth.

The lyrics

Here is a literal translation of the words of the first anthem.

Crown Him!

Crown Him! Crown Him! Crown Him!

Around the throne of God on high rejoices a crowd of people, a crowd redeemed of sin and guilt.

And crown Him as your Lord.

Bring praise and thanks and glorify his Name and crown Him as your Lord.

The promise of the Second Coming and the Advocacy of the Spirit causes men and the Creation to wait hopefully for eternal freedom.

One day corn and chaff will be separated.

He will lead us in freedom.

Throw all your sorrows before Him and crown Him as your Lord.

Let every person, every nation on this earth praise Thee.

Unto Him eternal praise and glory and crown Him as your Lord.

O ye that are chosen, come and assemble before his feet.

Join everyone in eternal song and crown Him as your Lord.

Amen.

The second anthem is a translation of Psalm 150. Rather than an attempt at rendering that version into English, here are the relevant verses from the Authorised Version (King James Bible).

Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.
